LORD MONTAGU'S PAGES

G. P. R. JAMES.

H. T. Thereman, Esq., says:

"What is best in the inexhaustible vein of James is preserved, and what is least effective in his style is repudisted in 'Lord Montacu's Page.' Written by one unknown to fame, it would be balled as of rare promise, and the exquisite manner in while Meerrs. Childs & Peterson have issued it seems to forceful the new vigor and grace bestowed by its prolific author upon this fresh and pleasing emanation of a pen quite as remarkable for the correct minutis of historical detail, as for artistic sequence of incident and kindly tone of feeling. In the great lack of entertaining books that signalizes the present season, numerous readers will thenk mest neartly as old friend, for thus coming bravely to the reade and giving them something to begulle and cheer,

A COOD NATURED EXPLANATION TO THE PUBLIC.

HENRY WARD BEECHER,

ONE BOLLAR OR MORE PER COVI, it may be well to let the Pamphiet bave A FAIR HEARING BEFORE THE PUBLIC.

Now the Primphet will not appear in any chesp, mangled, catch penny form, unreadable or badly printed, but in a shape which will reflect or did upon the well known Printing-House of John A. Gray, by whom the work is being done, and in his neatest size; as to the matter it may be relied on as being CORRECT (that is the word) a correct report of the TWO SERMONS as delivered.

MRCT (that is the word) a correct report of the IVO Schwidt MONS as delivered.

Before they were published in the NEW-YORK SUN, the the proofs were corrected by the party who reported them for that paper, (s gestleman connected with The Independent Office), and the proofs of one of the Two Sermons, by Henry Ward Bescher in person, (if we are rightly informed, and we have the best possible reason to believe we are) and the thousands who read the Sermons in the Sun and who were in Plymouth Church when they were delivered, have vouched for their correctness by exhaulting long ago the supply of papers containing the Sermons anding them to their friends throughout this country and various said of Europe.

saiding them to their friends inrongment that couldn's parts of Europe.

The demand continuing very strong and increasing inquiries being made at the various newsearands for them, and the wish being so general to have them republished, we thought it desirable to have them hish before the gabile in a next Pamphlet form and issued at a PRICE.

Ever since the first notice was given of the intention so to publish, certain interested carties have endeavored to keep us out of the Pablishing good. We intend, however, to venture into

MAMMOTH MUSICAL FESTIVAL

AND

FETE CHAMPETRE.

THE SECOND THIRD AND FOURTH OF AUGUST.
It order to rectify any misunderstanding the Management begs to inform the public that although the large attendance at the late MUSICAL. FEBTIVAL has suggested the idea that a similar class of SUMMER ENDERTAINMENT arranged with greater care and a larger variety of genera, amenent would be gratifying to them, it has no connection wholever with the MANAUEMENT of the late FESTIVAL. This it desires to be thoroughly and completely understood. It has in no case asked for the voluntary and unpaid service of any member of the large ORCHESTRA which it has ergand, having already agreed to pay the services of the MONSTER ORCHESTRA which it has curred for or the money cleared by the late FESTIVAL. This it may fearlessly without counting the other enourmons expenses attaching to the FIREWORKS, PEIZES offered to the SANGVERLINS, BALLOUN ASCENSIONS, and numerous other entertainments provided for the occasion.

This fact may alone prove that the present enterprise is not one which appeals to charitable liberality and its simily price of admission for support. It is, on the contrary, a legitimate attempt upon a large scale to give the NEW-TORK PUBLIC, at the lowest possible rate of ADMISSION, an ENSEMBLE of AMUSEMENT unprecedented in this country. The Management has undertaken it with the full hope that the large patronage which can alone render it renunerative for their concounsexpenses will be cheerfully afforded them. Should this trial of one of these entertainments which have now become so popular in LONIDON, PARIS and all the other great cities of EUROPE.

expenses will be cheerfully afforded them. Should this trial of one of these entertainments which have now become so popular in LONDON PARIS and all the other great cities of EUROPE in the SUMMER SEASON, prove successful, the MANAGEMENT begs to state that it is its intention for the coming year to establish a permanent class of amisement of a similar character, during the Summer, for the NEW-YORK PUBLIC.

As regards the Musical Entertainments, the Management believes that it needs do no more than refer to the names of the Conductors that it has engaged. The Messes, EOGE will youth for the character of the FIREWORKS; and the Programme of the first day's entertainments, which will be issued upon THURSDAY next, will establish the fact most conclusively that the details will be as well worthy of patronage as the Price of Admission is unprecedentedly reasonable.
